To Governor Frederick C. Payne and

Members of the Executive Council

Gentlemen:

As required by Section 31 of Chapter 14 of the Revised

Statutes of 1944, we submit herewith a condensed summary of the forthcoming complete report on the fiscal operation of the State of Maine for the year ended June 30, 1951, and its financial standing as of June 30, 1951.

The bonded debt of the State of Maine was again reduced to a new low of $5,973,500.*

Yours very truly,

W. H. Harris

State Controller

* On July 1, 1951 the bonded debt was further reduced by retirement of $2,200 of highway bonds.

DEFENSE BOND DRIVE TO START LABOR DAY

The entire Maine volunteer organization is alerted and "ready to go" on the greatest Defense Bond drive in the history of the nation. Harvey M. Fickett of Portland, State Director for U. S. Savings Bonds, announced today.

The gigantic, nation-wide campaign will be launched next Monday, Labor Day, with complete local and national newspaper display, as well as a series of all-network broadcasts featuring President Truman, Secretary of the Treasury Snyder, the Chiefs of Staff, the four official service bands and Medal of Honor heroes of the Korean campaign. The drive will run to October 27.

Every American man, woman and child will be called upon to "make Defense your job, too," by every conceivable activity aimed at the purchase of U. S. Defense Bonds. The drive has a three-fold purpose: To help keep America economically strong; to help deflation by the greatest organized thrift campaign in all history; and to build personal financial security for the future.

Payroll savings programs, bond-a-month accounts in the banks, school savings, farm and 4-H Club drives, retail store promotions, concentrated community campaigns, all will be called upon to place Maine in the highest possible bracket in the national drive standings. Fickett declared. He recalled that Maine placed 12th in the Nation in the last Independence Bond Drive, when a replica of the liberty Bell was presented to the State. It is permanently located on the steps of the State Capitol at Augusta.

A J. Cole, prominent Bangor business man, is general chairman of the State Advisory Committee for the Defense Bond Drive, with Joseph T. Sylvester of Portland as vice chairman. County chairmen include: Aroostook, Percy R. Winslow, Presque Isle, Cumberland, Sylvester; Franklin, Jarvis L. Tyler, Farmington; Hancock, H. Theodore Smith, Ellsworth; Kennebec, Harold E. Weeks, Augusta; Knox, Joseph W. Robinson, Rockland; Lincoln, Walter C. Chapman, Damariscotta; Oxford, George H. Vilas, South Paris; Piscataquis, E. M. Goodrich, Dover-Foxcroft; Sagadahoc, Daniel Williams, Bath; Somerset, Ralph T. Jenkins, Skowhegan; Waldo, Claude F. Clement, Belfast; York, Dr. John F. Schatzman, Kennebec.

County chairmen for Androscoggin, Penobscot and Washington Counties will be named in the next few days.

BORN

TALBOT IS NEW ENGLAND

PASTURE JUDGE

Maine's veteran Extension dairyman, Richard F. Talbot, is visiting every New England State. He is one of the six judges who will pick the winners in the New England-wide Green Pastures contest. There is one judge from each of the six New England States. The three best pastures in each state have already been chosen. Judges will now pick the best of the eighteen. New England winner two years ago was a Maine man, Beverly Rand, of Sherburne.
